

Pierre Boule is Managing Director of investorseurope, which was founded by him in 2001, after having spent 8 years working in Executive positions for various International Banks and Brokers in Lisbon and London, including BNP Paribas, Banco Popular and the FINACOR Group. During this period, Pierre Boule very successfully built up two stockbrokers from scratch in Europe. His previous management experience was as a Senior Executive of De Beers Diamonds, and other independent diamond mining operations during which period he set up and negotiated various personal stakes in diamond mines throughout the developing world. Pierre holds an MBA in International Business, is a qualified analyst and licensed to trade many of the cash and derivative products on the EURONEXT markets.